Re: United States v. John Doe
Criminal Docket No. 16-558 (BMC)

Dear Judge Orenstein:

As the Court is aware, the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorneys have requested an ex parte meeting with Your Honor to discuss certain comments made by the Court yesterday to the assigned Assistant U.S. Attorney in the case. In seeking to schedule the meeting with chambers, we were advised by the Court's Deputy Clerk that the Court is available to meet at 3:30 p.m., but that Your Honor has requested a letter to be filed confirming that defense counsel has consented to the ex parte nature of this meeting in advance of any such meeting.

We have advised counsel for the defendant, Lisa Scolari, Esq., of our request, and she has indicated her consent in writing to the Government.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. CAPERS
United States Attorney
